PureWrx Joins Ivy Technology to Expand Sustainable IT Solutions

PureWrx has officially joined Ivy Technology, a leading global provider of electronics repair and service solutions. This milestone extends our reach and capabilities while continuing to build on the expertise and strong OEM partnerships that define PureWrx.

For years, PureWrx has delivered certified pre-owned enterprise IT hardware that helps organizations reduce costs and environmental impact. Becoming part of Ivy gives us access to a global platform to scale these services and deliver greater value to customers.

This integration supports our shared commitment to sustainability, efficiency, and responsible asset management. Our focus remains the same: providing reliable, high-quality technology solutions and trusted support.
